IUPUC—Indiana University-Purdue University Columbus—has delivered high-quality undergraduate and graduate degree programs aligned with and responsive to regional educational needs since 1970. Enjoy interacting with students, faculty, and staff who are committed to making a difference in the future of our region. We seek greater diversity in our faculty and staff to broaden students’ academic experience and to enrich our campus community. Candidates must be sensitive to the needs of and possess an interest in working in an academic community that is diverse with regard to gender, race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, sexual orientation or identity, disability status, and protected veteran status. Become part of an exciting opportunity to build our Business program.

A tenure-track appointment is available on August 1, 2020, at the rank of Assistant Professor in the Division of Business at IUPUC. Business faculty are responsible for teaching in the Indiana University B.S. in Business and MBA degree programs. The position is a ten-month teaching assignment with expectations of teaching a variety of courses across the management discipline at various academic levels, conducting and publishing quality scholarly research, and engaging in service. Strong oral and written communication skills are a must. Successful teaching at the university level is very important. Additional responsibilities include appropriate scholarship and participation in service activities at the campus.

REQUIREMENTS: Completion of a doctorate in management or closely related field by January 31, 2020, and ability to teach a variety of courses in management across undergraduate and MBA levels. Area of specialization is Strategy; however, candidates with a primary focus in another area of management and a secondary focus on Strategy will also be considered. Applicants must be Scholarly Academics according to AACSB standards.

PREFERENCES: Minimum of two years’ experience in teaching traditional and non-traditional undergraduate and graduate students; applied research and business experience with clear evidence of ability to establish a successful research program; and demonstrated capacity to collaborate with faculty across disciplines. Civic engagement, grantsmanship, and/or professional experience a plus. Preference will be given to applicants who have a record of effectiveness and innovation in university level teaching and an interest in pursuing hybrid or online course delivery.

ABOUT COLUMBUS: IUPUC is a growing institution with high potential. The Columbus Learning Center incorporates resources from these institutions to provide a focal point for community learning. This partnership is the result of a community initiative to expand postsecondary degree and professional development opportunities for the local workforce, resulting in a seamless continuation of educational opportunities for area residents.

IUPUC is located in Columbus, Indiana, and has a staff of 63 full-time faculty with excellent credentials and enrolls between 1,400 and 1,600 students annually. Columbus is located one hour south of Indianapolis, 1½ hours from Louisville, and 1½ hours from Cincinnati. Columbus is a unique midwestern community with a population of 46,000 known for its world class architecture. The American Institute of Architects ranked Columbus sixth in the nation for architectural innovation and design – right behind Chicago, New York, Boston, San Francisco, and Washington, D.C. There are wonderful programs for young children, many parks, excellent philharmonic orchestra, and people trails. The community is also well known for its culture and its predilection for innovation.
