IUPUC—Indiana University-Purdue University Columbus—has delivered high-quality undergraduate and graduate degree programs aligned with and responsive to regional educational needs since 1970. Our students, faculty, and staff are committed to making a difference in the future of our region. We seek greater diversity in our faculty and staff to broaden students’ academic experience and to enrich our campus community. We have an exciting opportunity for a visiting faculty member to join our Master of Arts in Mental Health Counseling program for the period of one year.

An appointment in Psychology and Mental Health Counseling at the rank of Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor is available on August 1, 2022, in the Division of Science at IUPUC. The position is a twelve-month teaching assignment with expectation of teaching graduate courses in mental health counseling and service to the program, campus, community, and profession. Strong oral, written, and interpersonal communication skills and a collaborative mindset are a must. The successful candidate will join two other faculty to mentor and instruct 30 graduate students working toward licensure as generalist mental health counselors who value wellness and interdisciplinary collaboration.

The successful candidate will provide clinical supervision in the Schoellkopf Community Counseling Center; a state of the art, 1,000 square foot campus-based training clinic which opened in Fall 2020. The position may also work with the graduate program director to manage relationships with field experience sites in the community. Given the service required of this position, a 2 – 3 teaching load is required with the expectation of also teaching summer courses. Candidates must be sensitive to the needs of and possess an interest in working in an academic community that is diverse with regard to gender, race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, sexual orientation or identity, disability status, and protected veteran status.

IUPUC is a growing institution with high potential. Our staff of 60 full-time faculty with excellent credentials and enrolls 2,000 students annually. A strong collaborative partnership among Ivy Tech Community College, Purdue Polytechnic, and IUPUC exists and is expected to be enriched. The Columbus Learning Center incorporates resources from IUPUC, Ivy Tech Community College, and Purdue Polytechnic to provide a focal point for community learning. This partnership is the result of a community initiative to expand postsecondary degree and professional development opportunities for the local workforce, resulting in a seamless continuation of educational opportunities for area residents.

IUPUC is located one hour south of Indianapolis, 1-1/4 hours from Louisville, and 1-1/2 hours from Cincinnati. Columbus is known for its world-class architecture, wonderful programs for young children, many parks, excellent philharmonic orchestra, and people trails.
